

Mystery Picture Newspaper Article #tags & Poetry

Cindy McGarroch, District PBS Coach & Literacy Support Teacher &
Diane Barclay, District Cultural ASSW

Agenda

- Talking Circle → Respect
- A/B Partners
- “Why do people ask questions?” → chart paper activity
- Report Out → Groups share top three reasons why people ask questions
- Demo Graphic Organizer
 - Mystery Picture → “I see ... I wonder ... Maybe ...”
 - Report Out
 - Newspaper Article → #tags picture & #tags article
 - Report Out (Maybe Graffiti Wall for #tags)
- Blackout , Cinquain or Haiku Poetry
 - Planning & Poetry Pages
- Exit Ticket
- Talking Circle → volunteers share poems

Why do people ask questions?

Mystery Picture & #tags

I See...I Wonder...Maybe

Name: _____

Date: _____

I see...	I wonder...	Maybe...

Mystery Picture #tags

Article #tags

Mystery Article

Mystery shrouds century-old photograph

JASON WARICK

A mysterious, disturbing image captured on the streets of Saskatoon more than a century ago continues to provoke questions and outrage.

Who is the First Nations man on the ground, and how did he get there? Who are the settlers standing at the rail? What are the sheets of paper some of them hold? Are their wives and children watching? Why are the two boys staring at the man? What are they all thinking?

After all this time, do remnants of these attitudes and power dynamics remain in the city?

CINQUAIN INSTRUCTIONS

Line 1: a person, place, or thing (noun)

Line 2: two words that tell about the noun

Line 3: three zing words that show action about the noun

Line 4: one four-word phrase or sentence about the noun

Line 5: the noun again (or a word that means the same thing)

Blizzard

White world

Snowing, blowing, freezing

Lost in empty space

Blizzard

Haiku

A Haiku is a Japanese poem that does not rhyme.
It is a poem that describes something in nature.
Haiku poems have three lines, with a certain number of syllables in each line.

Line 1 = 5 syllables

Line 2 = 7 syllables

Line 3 = 5 syllables

The Ocean

Beautiful ocean

Roaring waves crash down on me

Floating in the foam

#tags

#tags

Finally, fit it into three lines with the right amount of syllables:

title

5 syllables

7 syllables

5 syllables

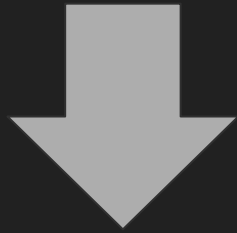

Exit Ticket...

My favourite part of the lesson or the best part of the lesson ...

This made me think of ...

I could use ... when ...

Talking Circle

Volunteers Share Poems